

Carlisle Area Chamber of Commerce

Chamber Highlights

Best Wishes to Ethel!

For 9 years Executive Director Ethel Lee has planned the events, communicated the news, and done a tremendous job of growing the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce and supporting the members. At the end of December, Ethel will retire from the Chamber.

At the Chamber's December meeting, President Paul Nolte presented Ethel with a gift of appreciation for her years of excellent in service. Ethel was also presented with a Lifetime Chamber Membership.

Secretary Dan Crum expressed the sentiments of those in attendance when he congratulated Ethel, and encouraged her to stay in touch. We invite her to enjoy her retirement and stay actively involved with the community and the chamber.

Ethel thanked the chamber and expressed her enjoyment of working with everyone over the last 9 years.

The Carlisle Chamber wishes Ethel a happy and healthy retirement with an extra helping of fun!

WELCOME – NEW CHAMBER MEMBER

Kanzi, a chatty Bonobo, communicates using a Lexigram. Is he the only Carlisle Chamber member who has been featured in Time and on the Oprah show?

The Iowa Primate Learning Sanctuary recently joined the chamber and Steve Boers, the Executive Director, invited the membership to “Lunch with the Bonobos”.

The afternoon included a visit with Kanzi, a Ribbon Cutting ceremony and a regular chamber meeting.

The Iowa Primate Learning Sanctuary is located at 4200 Evergreen Avenue, Des Moines, and is a non-profit organization. They have recently opened the facility for public tours.

They are working with Iowa Public Television to do ICN sessions and are encouraging school districts to log-on and have the class room students interact with the Bonobos.

RECENT EVENTS

LEGISLATIVE LUNCHEON

The Warren County Legislative Luncheon, hosted by the Norwalk Chamber of Commerce, was held on December 3rd, at Echo Valley Country Club. Carlisle Area Chamber Executive Directors Ethel Lee and Barbara Rasko were in attendance, as well as City Administrator Andy Lent. Newly-elected Senator Julian Garrett from Senate District 13 and Representative Scott Ourth from House District 26 spoke. Senator Garrett is committed to continuing his efforts to cut wasteful spending and adequately fund key programs. Representative Ourth agrees with Senator Garrett's priorities to be frugal, efficient and responsible with government dollars. He spoke of three additional key issues that he is committed to: bring world-class education back to benefit Iowa students and employers; create jobs through local economic development and continue Iowa's proud tradition of preserving, protecting and enhancing our rich natural resources.

After Hours

An After Hours event was held on November 19th at Peoples Bank to welcome new Executive Director Barbara Rasko and give Chamber members a chance to reconnect and relax.

Summerset Winery poured complimentary wine and appetizers were provided by Peoples Bank and Contemporary Catering.

Congratulations to the winners of the drawing for Chamber Bucks: $25.00, Kevin Seiberling, etc!graphics; $10, Dan Crum, Carlisle Public Schools; and $5, John Judisch, Stuyvesant & Benton.

DECEMBER REGULAR CHAMBER MEETING

The beautifully decorated Randleman House and the delicious meal prepared by the Carlisle Historical Society set the stage for a relaxing luncheon and Ethel Lee's retirement recognition. Members shared success stories and the city and others provided updates. This was the last chamber meeting of 2013.

LIGHT UP CARLISLE

Nearly 200 children visited Santa, received goodie sacks, played games and won prizes in the Carlisle Fire Station. There were lots of big smiles captured in the photos. Thank you to Todd Huguen Photography, Kathy Belzer, and Santa for providing this North Pole experience.

Thank you to our members who held open houses and provided treats and prizes: 21st Century Rehab, Antique Tractor Showcase, Carlisle Public Library with refreshments by Peoples Bank, Fiss', Great Western Bank, Stadium View/Johnny and Mike's, Mercy Carlisle Family Practice Clinic, and Wyckoff Heating and Cooling.

A SPECIAL THANKS goes to EVERYONE who made this year's Light Up Carlisle a success! Thanks to Santa and Mrs. Claus for stopping in Carlisle, to Father Christmas for visiting with children in Santa's Attic, to Bill and Kay Scholl for opening their building for Santa's Attic, to all of the artists and vendors and shoppers at Santa's Attic, to Kathy Betzer & Justin Chastain for providing live music at Santa's Attic, to Dick Ledlie for providing the chilly Hay Rack Rides, to the people who decorated the downtown, and stuffed candy bags, and for ALL the volunteers at the Fire Station, the 5th graders that provided music at the Library and to the people who decorated the Historical Randleman House to look so lovely for Christmas.

Thanks to the community members who helped Light Up Carlisle with decorated homes.

AND THANK YOU TO THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY FOR COMING OUT TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS ANNUAL FESTIVE EVENT!

Santa's Attic was a Hit, too!

"I loved Santa's Attic! I loved the assortment of vendors- not all the same kind of products and not all ones that needed you to sign up to host a party. We loved our spot for the library. We had good response during our silent auction for the Storybook Baskets and want to thank everyone who created and bid on the baskets." Stacy, Carlisle Public Library

"I had a very good day at the Light up Carlisle Show. It was very nice for a first show." MaBeth

"I thought it was a great event and would love to be part of more. Lots of traffic, well organized." Veronica

"I'm in the Christmas spirit now! This afternoon's Light Up Carlisle event was great - super selection of small businesses to shop with (love my new wool mittens, will post later the new door wreath I am making from some rustic items I picked up from a local metal artisan) and a great turnout made for a profitable afternoon. All the holiday décor and live piano holiday songs has me ready to decorate and bake! And a big thumbs up to the event coordinators for making it such a great afternoon, and not just from a vendor's perspective, but also because I saw so many people and families really enjoying the event!" Heidi

Warren County Excellence in Business

Congratulations to Award Winners Fiss' and Peoples Bank

And to all of the Carlisle Chamber Businesses Who Were Nominated

On Thursday, November 21, 2013 a reception was held at the Kent Campus Center at Simpson College to award the 1st Warren County Excellence in Business Awards, selected through on-line public voting.

WCDEC Executive Director Jason White spoke briefly about the growth that has taken place in the county in the last year, which continues to place us as one of the fastest growing counties over the last few decades. There have been business expansions, attractions of established businesses, and startups. He stressed that the relationships among and between our local businesses, cities, boards, organizations and investors are the single most important factor in economic development.

CONGRATULATIONS to the following Carlisle Chamber members that were award finalists for Warren County's Excellence in Business. Business of the Year: James Oil Co; Best Innovation of the Year: Marbleworks; Best Retail Establishment of the Year: Fiss'; Best Community Supporter of the Year: Community Bank and Peoples Bank. Wyckoff Heating and Cooling was an Honorable Mention Nominee.

The Warren County Excellence in Business Award Winners are:

Best employer: Fareway, Indianola and Norwalk

Best Innovation: Indianola Municipal Utilities, Indianola

Best Retail Business: Fiss' Ice Cream, Subs, and Salads, Carlisle

Best Community Supporter: Peoples Bank, Indianola, Milo, Carlisle

Best New Business: Mishmash Bake Shoppe, Indianola

Business of the Year: Downing Construction, Indianola

Top Exporter: Cemen Tech, Indianola

Thank you to everyone who nominated and voted for these fine businesses.

Congratulations to the Carlisle Chamber Members who received Recognition for Longevity (in business 20+ years): Casey's General Store, Central Iowa Insurance, Community Bank, etc!graphics, James Oil Company, Medicap Pharmacy, Optometric Associates of Warren County, Peoples Bank, and Wyckoff Heating and Cooling.

Ready, Set, Go! Here Comes 2014!

Whether your business is thriving or surviving, January is a good time to take a look at where you are compared to where you want to be. Consider what you are spending the most time on and whether it is worth the time. Review what is working and what's not, and be open to making some changes. Network or read to find new ideas that work. And think about what you need to do to gear up and recharge for the new year – and when you are going to make the time to do it. Here is a business-supporting idea to consider.

- Author and Leadership Coach David Byrd says, "Plan tomorrow before tomorrow comes." Plan the day around the activities that will produce the most important results. Determine how much time each will take, and then schedule the time in your calendar. Schedule 2 or 3 short sessions a day handle emails and return calls. This process will give you more control over your day and more productive, uninterrupted time to get important work completed. Adopt the mindset that you know what activities pay off, so you will stay on task, and not be constantly distracted by every email, phone call or unexpected interruption.

"Time is your most important resource. You can do so much in ten minutes. Ten minutes; once gone is gone for good." – Ingvar Kamprad

Ceremonial Groundbreaking

Danamere Village Townhomes

On November 26th, members of the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce and officials from the city of Carlisle participated in a groundbreaking event with Hubbell Realty Company for the construction of Danamere Village Townhomes.

Kris Saddoris with Hubbell Realty Company welcomed the attendees and thanked the people who had worked to bring the project to Carlisle. She acknowledged Carlisle Mayor Ruth Randleman and City Administrator Andy Lent. Bankers Trust Company, an investor/lender with the project, and the executive and project team from Hubbell.

Both Mayor Ruth Randleman and Paul Nolte, President, Carlisle Area Chamber of Commerce, thanked the people who had worked hard to bring this project to Carlisle and also expressed appreciation that Danamere Village Townhomes will provide young teachers and professionals with an affordable option for living in Carlisle.

Wearing hardhats and ceremonially turning the dirt at the groundbreaking in the media center at the Carlisle Middle School were HRC Senior Vice President, Steve Niebuhr, and HRC Development Vice President Kris Saddoris, Mayor Ruth Randleman and Chamber President Paul Nolte from Carlisle, and Bankers Trust Assistant Vice President Commercial Real Estate, Becky Fluegge,.

The rental townhome community located at 840 Bellflower Drive is to be completed by the fall of 2014. The projected $5.8 million development will be comprised of 44 townhomes within 22 duplexes. All townhomes are two-story, three-bedroom, and two-and-a-half-bath homes with one-car garages. The townhomes feature contemporary interiors, open living areas, large master suites with private bathrooms and walk-in closets, and in-home washers and dryers.
