Business Profile: Cody Smith has been a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones since June of 2021. Edward Jones is a human-centered wealth management firm that has been in business for 100 years serving over 8 million individual investors and 1.6 trillion of their assets.

Cody came to the firm after years in Law Enforcement where he chased his passion of helping those that need help. Today, he chases that same passion, just in a different way. Helping those that need help growing, protecting, and organizing their wealth.

Outside of the office you can catch Cody chasing around his 5-year-old and 2-year-old boys with his wife Allison. Cody is a HUGE Philadelphia Eagles fan, so if you ever want to talk football, he is all ears!

If you ever have any questions or need a second set of eyes on things, Cody and his team would be glad to help!
